

The Lucy Rose Clinic

INTEGRATIVE HEALTH SOLUTIONS

The Lucy Rose Clinic- Patient Confidentiality and Privacy Policy

Created by: Meredith Bell- Operations Manager

UPDATED : SEPTEMBER 2023

To be used by:

All staff and contractors of The Lucy Rose Clinic

Purpose:

We are committed to complying with all applicable privacy laws which govern how The Lucy Rose Clinic collects, uses, discloses and stores our patients personal information.

Procedure:

Collection

We collect information that is necessary and relevant to provide you with medical care and treatment, and manage our medical practice. This information may include your name, address, date of birth, gender, health information, family history, credit card and direct debit details and contact details. This information may be stored on our computer medical records system and/or in handwritten medical records.

Use and Disclosure

We will treat your personal information as strictly private and confidential. We will only use or disclose it for purposes directly related to your care and treatment, or in ways that you would reasonably expect that we may use it for your ongoing care and treatment.

In respect of Patients, The Lucy Rose Clinic will collect your personal information for the purpose of providing you with health care and for directly related purposes. For example, The Lucy Rose Clinic may collect, use or disclose personal information:

- For use by a multidisciplinary treating team;
- Assessment for provision of health care services;
- To liaise with health professionals, Medicare or your health fund;
- In an emergency where your life is at risk and you cannot consent;
- To manage our hospitals, including for processes relating to risk management, safety and security activities and quality assurance and accreditation activities;
- For the education of health care workers or the placement of students or trainees at The Lucy Rose Clinic facilities;
- To maintain medical records as required under our policies and by law; or
- For other purposes required or permitted by law.

The Lucy Rose Clinic will usually collect your personal information directly from you, but sometimes may need to collect it from a third party. We will only do this if you have consented or where it is not reasonable or practical for us to collect this information directly from you (for example, in relation to a patient, your life is at risk and we need to provide emergency treatment).

We will not use or disclose your personal information to any other persons or organisations for any other purpose unless:

- You have consented;
- For patients, the use or disclosure is for a purpose directly related to providing you with health care and you would reasonably expect us to use or disclose your personal information in this way;
- For other individuals, the use or disclosure is for a purpose related to providing you with services and you would reasonably expect us to use or disclose your personal information in this way;
- We have told you that we will disclose your personal information to other organisations or persons; or
- We are permitted or required to do so by law.

You have the right to access your personal information that we hold about you (for patients, this includes health information contained in your health record). You can also request an amendment to personal information that we hold about you should you believe that it contains inaccurate information.